

Marcus Neil Land, 58, died suddenly March 10, 2016 of a heart attack at his home in Asheville, NC. Marc was a 1976 graduate of Upper Arlington High School and attended Hocking Technical College, where he studied Forestry. Marc was an avid fisherman and outdoorsman, knowledgeable about nature and the woods. He was a quick witted, engaging and funny person who was always positive and upbeat. Marc was a kind and gentle man and is now at peace. He is survived by his brothers David and Rick and their families.